Introduction

The original Pioneer Settlers Program or Project was in celebration of the millennium. Applicants were to be descendants of DeKalb County Indiana pioneer settlers living in the county before December 31, 1850. Later DeKalb County Homesteaders, settled before December 31, 1890, were added.

This is the third volume of applications. In Volume I, the documented evidence was not included. The applications and evidence were microfilmed and each library in the county has a microfilm copy. The original applications and documentation of Volume 1 are available at the Eckhart Library's Willennar Genealogy Center in Auburn, Indiana.

Volume II, published in 2004, included applications and evidence. The originals for this volume are also at the Willennar Genealogy Center in Auburn.

Volume III, published in 2025, includes applications and evidence. The original applications and documentation of Volume III will be available at the Eckhart Library's Willennar Genealogy Center in Auburn. All libraries in DeKalb County, Indiana and also the Genealogy Center in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana were given copies of Volumes I and II. When published, these libraries will also be given a copy of Volume III.

A thank you goes to those hardworking researchers that were willing to share their pioneer ancestors with us. It is also a way to honor our ancestors who came before us.

Pioneer Settlers and Pioneer Homesteaders applications are on our website:

He was married Aug. 12, 1851, to Sarah Slentz, daughter of Henry Slentz. They have four children—Nancy Jane, Hannah, Benjamin and Ellen. Nancy married Charles Culbertson, of Otsego Township, Steuben County, and has three children—James H., Ella D. and Sarah E. Hannah married Peter Dirrim and has three children—Cyrus B., Franklin E. and Berton. Benjamin married Martha Dirrim and has three children—Eva, Isaac and Sarah E. Ellen married Robert C. Platt and has one child—Byron. Mr. Myers enlisted in the war of the Rebellion, in Company A, One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Indiana Infantry, and participated in the battles of Dalton, Buzzard's Roost, Resaca, Atlanta, Franklin, Nashville, Kingston, and many others.

David Oberlin, farmer and stock-raiser, section 18, Franklin Township, was born in Stark County, Ohio, April 5, 1818. His father, Frederick Oberlin, was a pioneer of Stark County, moving there from his native State, Pennsylvania, prior to the war of 1812. He was reared on a frontier farm, and after reaching manhood left his native county, then a thickly populated and prosperous country, and started for the West, to again put in practice the lessons learned in his youth. In October, 1847, he arrived in De Kalb County, Ind., and entered a tract of Government land in Franklin Township, at that time heavily timbered. He went bravely to work and by spring had enough land cleared to plant a crop, and in due time by his own labor had cleared sixty acres. In 1870 he moved to the farm where he now lives, and where he owns 106 acres of valuable land. Mr. Oberlin was married March 10, 1841, to Mary Van Horn, daughter of David Van Horn. They have four children—Susan, Mary M., Elizabeth and Josephine. Susan married Baless Boyer, of Smithfield Township, and has four children—Warren, Allen, Minnie and Franklin. Mary married Charles Kelly, of Union Township, and has three children—Alta, Gertrude and Clyde. Elizabeth married Daniel Lockamire, of Franklin, and has one child—Bertha May. Mr. and Mrs. Oberlin are members of the Lutheran church.

Nathan D. Oberlin, farmer, section 15, Franklin Township, was born in Stark County, Ohio, Feb. 5, 1830. In 1845 his father, John Oberlin, moved his family to De Kalb County, Ind., and settled on the northwest quarter of section 28, Franklin Township. Nathan D. worked for Samuel Kepler two years at $8 per month, and in the meantime cradled oats in the summer at five shillings a day. In the winter of 1850–'51 he bought forty acres of land, paying $300 for it. In 1850 he began to work at the carpenter's trade with Elisha W. Beard, and remained with him five years, receiving $10 a month for his services. He worked at his trade in connection with attending to his farm, and has been successful in all his pursuits. He now owns 160 acres of well-improved land. In 1879 he built a large brick house, the main building two stories 18 x 28 feet, with one two-story wing 17 x 18 feet, and another one-story 16 x 26 feet. Mr. Oberlin was married Feb. 12, 1854, to Sarah Dirrim, daughter of James Dirrim. To them have been born six children, but three of whom are living—Kyrus C., John J., and Isaac C. Kyrus married Nancy Chard and lives in Otsego Township, Steuben County; has two children—Ora E. and Mertie. John married Lenora Fifer, and resides in this township. Mr. Oberlin has served two years as Township Trustee, and three years as County Commissioner. In the war of the Rebellion he was a member of Company G, Fifty-third Indiana Infantry, and participated in the battle of Kingston or Wise's Forks, N. C. He is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, Hamilton Post.

Isaac D. Sawvel, farmer and stock-raiser, section 33, Franklin Township, was born in Stark County, Ohio, Oct. 18, 1836. In 1847 his father, Jacob Sawvel, moved to De Kalb County, Ind., and settled in Smithfield Township, where our subject grew to manhood and was educated in the log-cabin schools. He was reared a farmer and has made agriculture his vocation, also paying considerable attention to stock-raising, having some of the finest grades of cattle and hogs. He owns 105 acres of valuable land, all well improved, with a pleasant residence and good farm buildings. Mr. Sawvel was married Oct. 21, 1863, to Mary Lutz, daughter of Michael Lutz, who settled in De Kalb County in 1848. They have six children—John, Sadie, Mary, Sherman, Laura and Sumner.

Township. They have five children—Clara, wife of Preston Miller; Hannah D., wife of William Updegraph; Isaac E., Charles M., and James C.

Cyrus Bowman, Postmaster, Waterloo, farmer and stock-raiser, a son of John and Matilda Bowman, was born in Van Buren, Onondaga Co., N. Y., Nov. 9, 1818. His father was a native of New Jersey, and his mother of Connecticut. Mr. Bowman lived with his parents till he was twenty-one years old, and worked on his father's farm. He then came to this county where he spent three years a single life, clearing land, splitting rails by the job, etc., and in the meantime cleared twenty acres of 160 given him by his father, entered in the fall of 1838. He then returned to his home in New York, where, June 15, 1843, he married Miss Rachel Waterman, a native of Van Buren, N. Y. In the fall of 1843 he and his wife moved to this county, built a cabin in the woods where they lived until her death, Oct. 17, 1855. To them were born two children—Harriet Matilda, who died Oct. 8, 1855, aged nearly eleven years, and Rosa G., born June 19, 1851, now the wife of Phineas D. Childs, of Fairfield Township. Sept. 4, 1858, Mr. Bowman was married to Sarah Ann Smith, his present wife, a native of Stark County, Ohio, but an early settler in this county. They have two children—Archie S., born July 1, 1859, a farmer of Cass County, Mich., and Fred C., born Nov. 1, 1866. Fred is still at home, and superintends the work of the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman are now on the shady side of life very pleasantly situated, both of them of strict integrity, and loved and respected by all their acquaintances.

4th Gen,

Adam Boyer, section 19, Franklin Township, came from Ohio with his father, Peter Boyer, in 1836. The following fall, after assisting his father to build a log cabin and clear a small patch of ground, he returned to Ohio, but in March, 1837, came again to De Kalb County, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Daniel Kepler. He made his home with his brother Michael, who came in 1836, till his marriage, Jan. 11, 1838, to Rebecca Holden, daughter of Samuel Holden, a native of Highland County, Ohio, born in 1813. She came to De Kalb County with her brothers, Mathew and Francis Holden, in 1837. He built a log cabin, but notwithstanding their inconveniences they made the best of his circumstances, and with the energy of youth and the hope and happiness of newly married life passed the winter in comparative comfort. Their household effects were limited, but in the spring of 1839 he returned to Southern Indiana for furniture belonging to his wife. In 1840 he returned to De Kalb County and settled where he now lives. To Mr. and Mrs. Boyer have been born five children; but four are living—Elimina, wife of Andrew Duncan; Balis H.; Mary Ann, wife of R. J. Fisk; Irene, wife of A. T. Smith. Their youngest son Ira, died Dec. 21, 1873, in the nineteenth year of his age.

5th Gen.

Balis H. Boyer, section 10, Smithfield Township, bought his farm in 1863 of Samuel Strugh. He is a son of Adam and Rebecca (Holden) Boyer, early settlers of Franklin Township. He was born in Highland County, Ohio, April 17, 1840. He was reared on the old homestead, receiving a good education in the common schools. He was married to Susan Oberlin, daughter of David Oberlin, early residents of Franklin Township. She was born in Stark County, Ohio, in 1843. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer have four children—Warren J., Mary M., Adam D., and Francis M., all living in Smithfield Township.

Oliver J. Camp was born in Stark County, Ohio, in 1852; a son of John and Susanna (Smith) Camp, natives of the same county. His parents came to De Kalb County, Ind., in April, 1855, and settled on section 6, Smithfield Township, on land bought several years previous of Mrs. Camp's father, Benjamin Smith. The first house on the place was built by Mr. Camp in 1855. The present residence, one of the best in the township, was built in 1878. The farm is under a good state of cultivation; there is a fine orchard of about 125 trees, and all the improvements are in good order, and among the best in the township. Mrs. Camp still resides on the homestead. They had a family of four children, three of whom are living—Aaron W., Luther B. and Oliver J. The latter still resides on and has charge of the farm.

Abel Campbell, deceased, was one of the early settlers of Smithfield Township, locating on the southwest quarter of section 28 in May, 1847. He was a native of Pennsylvania, born Oct. 26, 1807, and when a boy moved with his parents to Stark County, Ohio, where he was reared and married June 16, 1831, to Jane Taylor, a native of Washington County, Pa., born May 25, 1812. In 1836 they moved to Summit County, and thence to De Kalb County, making the journey hither by teams, taking two weeks to make the trip. Mr. Campbell bought his

William Grate

William Grate, the son of George and Elmira Grate, was born April 1, 1871, and departed this life January 19, 1949, at the age of 77 years, nine months and eighteen days.

He was united in marriage to Ellen Albright, March 25, 1893, and to this union five children were born: Harry of Waterloo, Brownie of Corunna, Lester of Ashley, Mrs. Ethel Warstler of Auburn, and Mrs. Wava Stoy of Ashley.

In 1888 he accepted Christ as his personal Savior being baptized by T. J. Hedges and attended the Cedar Lake Church for a number of years. His wife and children have also been influenced by the Cedar Lake Church through the years.

Mr. Grate spent most of his married life in DeKalb County, Indiana, homesteading on what had belonged to the Nickey and Gandy Lumber Company, and located a mile east of the Cedar Lake Church. About 1936 he retired from active farming and has lived in and around Ashley since that time. His health had been failing for the past several years and he had been bedfast for the past eight weeks. He was taken to the Souder hospital in Auburn on January 18, and passed away the following day.

He leaves to mourn his departure his beloved wife and companion; five children; twelve grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Etta McClish of Ashley; three brothers; Delbert of Corunna, Elmer of Elkhart and Glenn of Kendallville; one half brother, Hayes McClish of Detroit, Michigan, and many other relatives and friends.

"Dear Father, we will miss you
No one can tell how much;
But we know you are resting
If ever there was such.

"We will miss you as a Father,
We will miss you as a guide,
We will miss you as a counselor,
At every crook and tide.

"No matter how we miss you,
We feel your need above,
As God must have His workers there,
To do the work of love.

"Then help us say, 'Thy will be ours',
Till Thou dost call us home,
Where we can be with Father
Ever more to roam."

VERNE ELSWORTH HARDING

That the plenitude of satiety is seldom attained in the affairs of life is to be considered a most beneficial deprivation, for where ambition is satisfied and every ultimate end realized, if such be possible, apathy must follow. Effort would cease, accomplishment be prostrate, and creative talent waste its energies in inactivity. The men who have pushed forward the wheels of progress have been those to whom satisfaction lies ever in the future, who have labored continuously, always finding in each transition stage an incentive for further effort. Mr. Harding is one whose well directed efforts have gained for him a position of desirable prominence in the agricultural circles of DeKalb county, and his energy and enterprise have been crowned by a gratifying degree of success.

Verne Elsworth Harding is a representative of one of the old pioneer families of DeKalb county, his grandfather, Dimick Harding, having been one of the first settlers of Richland township. He was born September 12, 1803, in New York, came to LaGrange county, Indiana in 1832, settling near Lima, now Howe, moving from there to Richland township, DeKalb county, in 1841, settling on the tract of land now owned and occupied by the subject of this sketch, and it is a noteworthy tract. The farm has been owned and occupied by the Harding family continuously for seventy-two years. Dimick Harding was married to Sarah Pike in LaGrange county, Indiana, in 1826, and to this union were born the following children: Levi, Samantha, Sabra, William Wrily, Solomon, Elmira and Albert, all deceased.

826 DEKALB COUNTY, INDIANA

#5 Solomon was the father of the subject of this sketch. He married Sarah Smith and they had eight children. Of these children, Mary J., Martha E., Frank M., Delbert H., Verne Elsworth, Rosa Evelyn, Dennis F. and Pearl D., all of whom are deceased excepting Verne and Dennis.

Verne E. Harding was born on the old homestead in Richland township, this county, on July 24, 1865. He was reared under the parental roof, securing a good education in the public schools, and has always given thoughtful and intelligent direction to the vocation of farming, to which he was reared, and he has achieved a most eminent success in this point. The day is past and gone when the farmer is looked down upon by other professions, for the progressive and up-to-date farmer of today has asserted his place among the leading producers of work, and among the most serviceable of vocations. Mr. Harding has made a close and critical study of agricultural means and methods, which he has in many ways demonstrated by his own experience as an agriculturalist, and he has for many years been numbered among the progressive and influential farmers of DeKalb county. He has been officially connected with the farmers' institutes of both the township and county at large, and has made many instructive and effectual addresses to the farmers of his county. For a number of years he has been a solicitor for the DeKalb Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and in many ways has demonstrated business ability of a high order. He owns one hundred and twenty acres of highly improved land in Richland township, to which he gives his attention, and here he has achieved a noteworthy success. He carries on general farming, raising all of the crops common to this locality, and also gives a proper share of attention to the raising of live stock, one of the most important auxiliaries of successful farming. Politically, Mr. Harding is an earnest Republican, while, fraternally, he is an active and influential member of the Knights of Pythias, belonging to the subordinat 24 Dimmick Harding, son of 22 William and Polly Harding, was born in Pennsylvania, September 12, 1803. Later with his parents, brothers and sisters moved to Wayne County, New York, where he married Sarah Pike. Nothing is known about the parents of Sarah Pike, but she was born June 8, 1806. It was here that part of their family of eight children were born. In 1832, Dimmick Harding with his family moved from New York state to LaGrange County, Indiana and settled on a farm near Lima, or what is known now as Howe, Indiana. The other brothers of Dimmick Harding who had come to Indiana previously, had settled in the vicinity of LaGrange, LaGrange county, but Dimmick preferred to stay in the vicinity of Lima, for LaGrange was then a dense wilderness and would take considerable time and work to clear and get ready for the plow, while at Lima no clearing was necessary, for it was beautiful prairie land. After years of toil and hardship in LaGrange County, Dimmick decided to move. With his family he came southeastward, and on September 1, 1841, he settled in Richland Township, DeKalb County, Indiana on the farm now (1929) owned by Vern E. Harding and operated by Forrest C. Harding. Little did he realize, that, ere ninety years should pass into eternity, the automobile would be speeding by the old homestead at sixty miles an hour, and airplanes would be flitting through the atmosphere above like summer butter-flies. Little did he suspicion, as he drove that old ox-team in and out amongst the stumps and underbrush, that, ere four-score years should pass, that very turf which he was turning would be turned again by modern tractor, and that those very hills which he had purchased from the government for $1.50 per acre and which he trod day after day would resound with the exhaust of modern inventions. But that very thing has come to pass within the period of four-score years and ten.

CHAPTER LXXXIX

RICHLAND, JACKSON, STAFFORD AND SMITHFIELD TOWNSHIPS

Richland Township

Richland Township, situated in the western tier, was organized as a civil township in September, 1837, as a whole congressional township, and Jacob Weirick was appointed its first supervisor. At the first election but six votes were cast, and William Showers was elected justice. The first settler was Joseph Miller, who, in August, 1836, cut his way in from his father's clearing in Jackson, and located on land two miles west and half a mile south of Auburn. This was in territory now included in Keyser Township. Within a few months he was followed by Jacob Weirick and Joshua Feagler, the latter of whom is commemorated by the local geographical appellation of "Feagler's Corners." Calvin Calkins, who left Sandusky County, Ohio, in the fall of 1839 on foot, carrying his scanty provisions in a knapsack, also arrived here and settled on a quarter-section south of Corunna. He had a race to the land office at Fort Wayne to get ahead of a competitor who wanted a part of the same land, and arrived there only an hour ahead of him. Solomon Showers, who built a small cabin in the northeast part of the settlement, gave lodging and entertainment temporarily to the new settlers arriving in the locality, which became known as Showers' Settlement; and the corners south of Sedan were named for Lyman Green. Other pioneers of the township were Daniel Webber, William Beck, William Showers, Japhet Ingraham, Samuel Jones, Thomas Daily, Dimick Harding, Henry Willis, and the Moody Connelly, and Haynes families. Henry Willis, who was afterwards sheriff, and who subsequently settled in Waterloo, located in the northeastern part of the township on a sugar-timbered tract. He manufactured sugar, which he obtained from the maple trees, and which he exchanged for breadstuffs.

The first schoolhouse was erected at Green's Corners prior to 1841. This, of course, was a log building, but it was replaced by a frame in 1849. In 1842 a log schoolhouse was built half a mile northeast of Calkin's Corners, in which Loretta Rawson taught fifteen pupils. The Baptists erected the first log church at Calkin's Corners. Obadiah Bear put up the first grist-mill at Corunna, and John Weaver built a water saw mill on section 16. The first steam saw mill was erected by Burgess and Green on land belonging to Mr. Green.

Corunna

Corunna is a little village which sprang up on the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad, and now has a population of a little over 300. The Methodist Church, built there about 1870, is still flourishing. In 1914 Claude E. Wilsey established the "News," which he conducted intermittently as editor and publisher for awhile, but the paper is now out of existence. The postoffice has two rural routes, and the Thomas Exchange

George Nelson Smurr was born in Alleghany Co., Pa., Sept. 21, 1821. and died at the home of his son Martin, in Wilmington Twp., DeKalb Co., Ind., Saturday Jan. 3, 1903, at the age of 81 years, 3 months and 12 days.

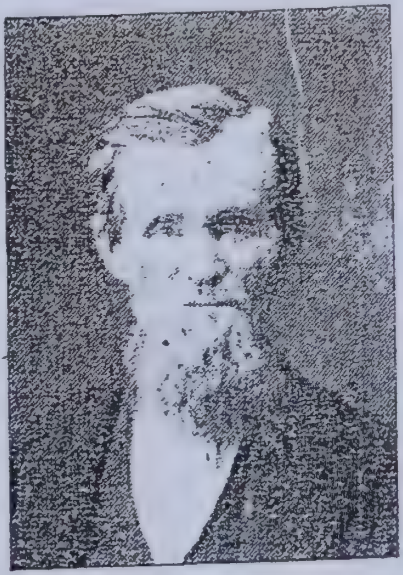
When he was two years old his parents moved to Stark county, Ohio, and from there to Wilmington township, DeKalb county, where the deceased continued to reside until his death.

He was united in marriage on Jan. 29, 1843, to Rebecca Kinsley. To this union were born twelve children, five girls and seven boys, three of them, one girl and two boys died in infancy. Another son, Daniel, preceded him to the better world five years ago, thus leaving eight children, twenty-two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, three sisters, two brothers and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.



His companion, after having been a loving helpmate to him for over fifty years, died November 1, 1895. They lived together fifty-three years and ten months when parted by death. Thirty-seven years ago they were both happily converted and united with the Church of God and were faithful to death.

He was a kind and affectionate husband, a loving father, and his daily life was a demonstration of Christian character and consecration to God. He had full preparation and was quietly and peacefully waiting for the change. He wrote his own obituary. Father Smurr had made the remark to the family that when the time came that he might pass out peacefully and quietly, and it was granted him. He was visiting with relatives from Michigan, and the family all in good cheer, when the death angel came and claimed its own. Father Smurr died on the same farm that he first landed on sixty years ago. He exemplified the truth of God's promise, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

"O death, where is thy sting?
Oh grave where is thy victory!"

1843?

The funeral services were held in the U. B. church at Waterloo, Monday afternoon, Jan. 6, 1903, at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. S. Gandy, who took for his theme "Divine Remembrance [illegible] buried in Waterloo cemetery.

K-7

When he was two years old his parents moved to Stark county, Ohio, and from there to Wilmington township, DeKalb county, where the deceased continued to reside until his death.

He was united in marriage on Jan. 29, 1843, to Rebecca Kinsley. To this union were born twelve children, five girls and seven boys, three of them, one girl and two boys died in infancy. Another son, Daniel, preceded him to the better world five years ago, thus leaving eight children, twenty-two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, three sisters, two brothers and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

His companion, after having been a loving helpmate to him for over fifty years, died November 1, 1895. They lived together fifty-three years and ten months when parted by death. Thirty-seven years ago they were both happily converted and united with the Church of God and were faithful to death.

He was a kind and affectionate husband a loving father, and his daily life was a demonstration of Christian character and consecration to God. He had full preparation and was quietly and peacefully waiting for the change. He wrote his own obituary. Father Smurr had made the remark to the family that when the time came that he might pass out peacefully and quietly, and it was granted him He was visiting with relatives from Michigan, and the family all in good cheer, when the death angel came and claimed its own. Father Smurr died on the same farm that he first landed on sixty years ago. He exemplified the truth of God's promise, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

"O death, where is thy sting?
Oh grave, where is thy victory?"

The funeral services were held in the U. B. church at Waterloo, Monday afternoon, Jan. 6, 1903, at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. S. Gandy, who took for his theme "Divine Remembrance Implored" Neh. 13:31, assisted by Rev. S. P. Klotz, after which the remains were buried in Waterloo cemetery

SMURR.

George Nelson Smurr was born in Alleghany Co., Pa., Sept. 21, 1821, and died at the home of his son Martin, in Wilmington Twp., DeKalb Co., Ind., Saturday Jan. 3, 1903, at the age of 81 years, 3 months and 12 days.

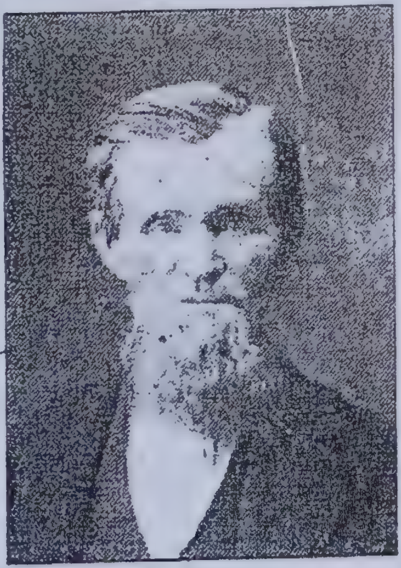
When he was two years old his parents moved to Stark county, Ohio, and from there to Wilmington township, DeKalb county, where the deceased continued to reside until his death.

He was united in marriage on Jan. 29, 1843, to Rebecca Kinsley. To this union were born twelve children, five girls and seven boys, three of them, one girl and two boys died in infancy. Another son, Daniel, preceded him to the better world five years ago, thus leaving eight children, twenty-two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, three sisters, two brothers and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.



His companion, after having been a loving helpmate to him for over fifty years, died November 1, 1895. They lived together fifty-three years and ten months when parted by death. Thirty-seven years ago they were both happily converted and united with the Church of God and were faithful to death.

He was a kind and affectionate husband, a loving father, and his daily life was a demonstration of Christian character and consecration to God. He had full preparation and was quietly and peacefully waiting for the change. He wrote his own obituary. Father Smurr had made the remark to the family that when the time came that he might pass out peacefully and quietly, and it was granted him. He was visiting with relatives from Michigan, and the family all in good cheer, when the death angel came and claimed its own. Father Smurr died on the same farm that he first landed on sixty years ago. He exemplified the truth of God's promise, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

"O death, where is thy sting?
Oh grave, where is thy victory?"

The funeral services were held in the U. B. church at Waterloo, Monday afternoon, Jan. 6, 1903, at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. S. Gandy, who took for his theme, "Divine Rememberance Implored." (Neh. 13:31) assisted by Rev. S. P. Klotz, after which the remains were buried in Waterloo cemetery.

with the friendship of a large circle of patrons, and has been recognized as one of our best citizens. He withdraws from the firm, leaving his good will with his successor, Mr. John F. Maxson, who is well known as a practical jeweler and silversmith and an honorable man. The people are fortunate in having the business of the firm in good hands. The Waterloo Press March 10, 1887

It is plainly evident that all we need in Waterloo, is more men that dare to do something. There are plenty of opportunities to invest capital, and all of our manufacturing institutions are busy and the demand for all articles made of wood, is such that there is no risk in enlarging in the line of manufactories. As long as timber is in demand to ship in the log, as has been the case during the past three years, and the demand increases each year, so long will it pay to use this same timber in home manufactures. Think it over and let us have additional stock companies formed at an early day. This will pay, and besides increase the general business of the town, and make better market for the surrounding country.

We take pleasure in mentioning the fact, that Jacob G. Brown, of this place, has been promoted by the Lake Shore R. R. Company. Mr. Brown has been a faithful employe of this company for over fifteen years, and gradually worked his way by honest service from a day laborer to section "boss," and assistant trackmaster, until, as a reward for merit, he was last week called to the position of conductor on the construction train, between Toledo and Elkhart, with a salary of eighty dollars per month. His headquarters are at present at Toledo, and he has charge of a large number of men. Mr. Brown's service in the army afforded him valuable lessons in commanding men, and we trust the company will find his services valuable in his new position.

"Enoch Arden," at Lockhart's Opera House, on last Saturday night, brought out an appreciative audience. The play, founded on the celebrated poem written by Alfred Tennyson, is one that will please all who appreciate the faithful portrayal of noble characters. The part of Enoch Arden was well acted by Mr. Langstaff, and his wife was fitted to fill the position assigned that of Mr. Arden's faithful wife. home talent acted their parts well, and we heard several remark that the entertainment was much better than they of a neighbor woman, who snatched the fatal dose from the suicidal hand. A tablespoonful of morphine would have caused her death, had it not been for this seemingly providential hinderance. Constant watch has been kept since this strange occurrrence, as she is not, at present, considered sound in mind.

George Smurr

The funeral services of Father Smurr, which took place yesterday from the Church of God, was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The old gentleman was 91 years of age, and the father of thirteen children; seventy-two persons called him grand-father, sixty-three called him great-grandfather, and his life was spared to see a lone great-great-grand-child. An intimate friend of Mr. S., who had known him fifty years, states that in all these years he had never been known to quarrel or be at enmity with any man. The remains were interred in the Rude cemetery.

"Vanity, vanity, all is vanity."—We are impressed with this truth by our latest experience; for while in the very act of writing an article on the progress, prosperity and prospects of our school, under the efficient management of Prof. Sanders, we received the awful intelligence that he had accepted a situation as principal in the Warsaw schools; thus taking from us one of our most valuable citizens. Mr. Sanders leaves a host of friends who will regret his absence in social and religious circles of this place. Although in his resignation we suffer a great loss, it is evidently his professional gain. His contract in the new field of labor will take effect April 1, with an increase of salary from $800 to $1,400 per year.

For some reason or other, the case of Mrs. Iler's attempted suicide has been dealt with very sparingly by our home publications. We deem it proper, however, to give the affair a little ventilation. Mrs. Iler, whose husband is known as a drunken sot, made a strange effort to put herself out of the way, last Wednesday, by means of an apron twisted into a rope. While in the act of choking herself with the same, her deed was discovered by the children, who ran out screaming for help. When the rope was removed life seemed almost extinct. what prompted this desperate act can asily explained; it seems there had n nothing in the house to eat for eral days, when Iler came home from runken spree, cursing and swearing, and seeking to drag her, whom he had promised to protect, down to his own

SMURR.

George Nelson Smurr was born in Alleghany Co., Pa., Sept. 21, 1821, and died at the home of his son Martin, in Wilmington Twp., DeKalb Co., Ind., Saturday Jan. 3, 1903, at the age of 81 years, 3 months and 12 days.

When he was two years old his parents moved to Stark county, Ohio, and from there to Wilmington township, DeKalb county, where the deceased continued to reside until his death.

He was united in marriage on Jan. 29, 1843, to Rebecca Kinsley. To this union were born twelve children, five girls and seven boys, three of them, one girl and two boys died in infancy. Another son, Daniel, preceded him to the better world five years ago, thus leaving eight children, twenty-two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, three sisters, two brothers and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

His companion, after having been a loving helpmate to him for over fifty years, died November 1, 1895. They lived together fifty-three years and ten months when parted by death. Thirty-seven years ago they were both happily converted and united with the Church of God and were faithful to death.

He was a kind and affectionate husband a loving father, and his daily life was a demonstration of Christian character and consecration to God. He had full preparation and was quietly and peacefully waiting for the change. He wrote his own obituary. Father Smurr had made the remark to the family that when the time came that he might pass out peacefully and quietly, and it was granted him He was visiting with relatives from Michigan, and the family all in good cheer, when the death angel came and claimed its own. Father Smurr died on the same farm that he first landed on sixty years ago. He exemplified the truth of God's promise, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

"O death, where is thy sting?
Oh, grave, where is thy victory?

The funeral services were held in the U. B. church at Waterloo, Monday afternoon, Jan. 6, 1903, at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. S. Gandy, who took for his theme "Divine Remembrance Implored" Neh. 13:31, assisted by Rev. S. P. Klotz, after which the remains were buried in Waterloo cemetery.

MARY MOUNTZ DIES ON HER 91ST BIRTHDAY

MRS. MARY TEETERS MOUNTZ

Mrs. Mary Teeters Mountz, often referred to as Garrett's "first lady," died Friday at 12:30 a.m. at her home on her 91st birthday. She was a lifelong resident of DeKalb county and was the widow of Howard W. Mountz, who was one of Northeastern Indiana's most prominent lawyers. The residence was at 507 East Houston street in Garrett.

Mrs. Mountz had been in good health considering her age. She suffered a cerebral embolism at her home Tuesday evening and her condition steadily became worse. The Garrett fire department resuscitator squad was called to her home Thursday night. She refused to be taken to a hospital.

The body was taken to the McKee funeral home where it remained until final rites were held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Methodist church. The Rev. Blythe Whealy officiated and burial followed in Mt. Zion cemetery near Pleasant Lake.

Mrs. Mountz was born March 17, 1870, in a home on Highway No. 27 just west of Auburn, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Washington Teeters. She and Mr. Mountz were married in her parents' home Oct. 13, 1897, and they immediately came to Garrett to live. The Rev. Colvin, who was then minister of the Presbyterian church in Auburn, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Mountz became the parents of three children. Mrs. George Carroll resides in Terre Haute and James T. Mountz resides at Weston, Mass., a suburb of Boston. Another son, George E.

Mrs. Mountz taught Sunday school for more than 40 years and was still active in the Woman's Society of Christian Service until her death.

An open house was held at Mrs. Mountz' home when she observed her 90th birthday last year.

Dear Pioneer Committee:

Thank you for the opportunity to honor my ancestors, Lewis and Jennie B. (McGOWAN) WALTERS, as Pioneer Homesteaders in DeKalb County, Indiana.

Lewis was born in Hancock County, Ohio and served in the Civil War. Jennie was reputed to be a well known mid-wife in DeKalb County. Married on March 30, 1890 in DeKalb County they became the parents of six children. My father, Silas Ted WALTERS, was their second born child. He became Auburn's Fire Chief in the 1940's. My brother, Bill WALTERS, served as Auburn's Fire Chief in the 1980's. Bill WALTERS is currently a resident making one hundred and sixteen years of continuous Walters' Family occupancy in DeKalb County.

I would like to acknowledge the assistance of the Clerk of the Courts and Recorder's Office of DeKalb County for allowing research of the documents they have in safekeeping. The Willenar Library provided easy access to newspaper and microfilmed records. The DeKalb County Historical Society and John Martin Smith were encouraging in my research due to their vast knowledge of the community. And, the DeKalb County Indiana Genealogy Society for expanding the pioneer program so that my ancestors can now be proudly included.

I would like to thank my siblings who were interested in the history of our family and took the time to collect and save important photographs and memorabilia.

And finally, to all those who are yet to come to the branches of our family tree… we bid you welcome and hope you will preserved the precious memory of those who spent the better part of their lives in DeKalb County, Indiana.

Sincerely,

Deloris Jane (Walters) Clifford

Deloris Jane (WALTERS) CLIFFORD

GRAVES REGISTRATION FORM NO. 1 - THE AMERICAN LEGION

AUBURN — The Auburn Fire Department has made a lot of progress since this picture was taken 33 years ago. At the time the department consisted of 14 men, two fire trucks (a 1919 American LaFrance and a 1928 American LaFrance) and a lot of pride.

Fire Chief Lester Cogswell and his men fought numerous fires with the old equipment, but took time out to pose for this picture.

Since that time, the department has come a long way. Fire Chief Gilbert Potter now commands 15 men and has four modern pieces of fire fighting equipment.

The department now has a 1947 American LaFrance pumper, a 1953 American LaFrance pumper, a 1968, 85-foot aerial ladder truck and a 1971 Dodge grass buggy.

The three big trucks each have 1,000 - gallon - per - minute pumping capacities, while the grass buggy carries 200 gallons of water.

Since that time, the fire station itself has changed. With the addition of newer equipment, it was necessary to put in one big door across the front of the building. The center post section was removed and a new power operated door was installed in 1953.

The firemen's living quarters, above the fire truck bays, was also remodeled and is quite comfortable. All the remodelling work was done by the volunteer firemen.

Only two members of the 1938 fire department are still living, Ted Walters (whose son, Bill, is presently a driver for the department), and Speed Brandon.
